GOLD AWARD

RECEPTION & RECOGNITION 2019

PROGRAM

Join the ESD Affiliated Technical Societies as we come together to honor and recognize our leaders – engineers, scientists and technical professionals who have distinguished themselves through outstanding achievement and service within their respective Societies.

Hosted by The Engineering Society of Detroit and its Affiliate Council, the event will feature this year's Gold Award winner. This award is given to an individual who is collectively upheld by the council for his or her outstanding contributions to the fields of science and engineering.
